

Red Ribbon Week

Red Ribbon Week is a week we dedicate to educating our children on being safe and drug-free. The counselors use the month of October to go into the classrooms and teach drug prevention lessons and strategies to keep our children safe. We educate the students on the differences between "good drugs" ~ like the medicine our doctor gives us when we're sick, and "bad drugs" ~ those drugs that can harm us and make us sick.